Thank you for filing your income tax return. This notice explains the results of our assessment and any changes we may have made. Please refer to the "Summary" area for additional information. Keep this notice for your records.

Did you know... that the Government of Canada is switching to direct deposit for payments that it issues? Direct deposit is a faster, more convenient, reliable, and secure way to get your income tax refund and your tax credit and benefit payments directly into your account at a financial institution in Canada. To sign up for direct deposit today or to update your banking information, go to www.cra.gc.ca/directdeposit.

Get your mail online! Log into My Account, select "Manage online mail," and sign up to receive your notices online. Use My Account to access and manage your tax and benefit information online. Make changes to your return, check your RRSP information, set up direct deposit and more. To register for My Account, go to www.cra.gc.ca/myaccount.

We will automatically calculate the goods and services tax/harmonized sales tax credit and any related provincial credit based on your family net income, province of residence, marital status, and qualified children. We will let you know in July if you are entitled to any credit for the period from July 2015 to June 2016.

Based on our records, you will receive an instalment reminder in August and may have to make instalment payments starting September 15, 2015. For more information about making instalment payments, go to www.cra.gc.ca/instalments.

We used part of your refund to pay the balance you owe from other assessments. accordingly.

Your refund of $2,901.74 will be transferred to your 2015 instalment account. The effective date of the transfer will be May 26, 2015.

A Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA) allows Canadian residents, who are 18 years of age or older, to earn tax-free investment income throughout their lifetime.
